

Cut the Cable:

SAY GOODBYE TO CABLE TV AND USE
CHEAPER ENTERTAINMENT SERVICES

Streaming service device compatibility

Most services try to support many devices, but typically don't support everything. It's important to know if the device you want to use is supported by a service you want to use.

Links checked as of 10/6/2016

Netflix: <https://devices.netflix.com/en/>

Amazon: <https://www.amazon.com/gp/video/ontv/devices/>

HBO NOW: <https://order.hbonow.com/devices> , http://help.hbonow.com/app/answers/detailHBO/a_id/11/~which-devices-work-with-hbo-now

Showtime Now: <http://www.sho.com/order>

Hulu: <http://www.hulu.com/start/devices>

Sling TV: <https://www.sling.com/devices>

CBS All Access: <https://www.cbs.com/live-tv/> (scroll down a bit and click See supported devices)

PlayStation Vue: <https://www.playstation.com/en-us/network/vue/faq/> (Supported Device FAQs)

NFL Game Pass: <https://digitalcare.nfl.com/hc/en-us/articles/215461007-Devices>

NHL Gamecenter: <https://subscribe.nhl.com/devices>

MLB TV: <http://mlb.mlb.com/mlb/subscriptions/index.jsp?content=products>

Hoopla: <https://www.hoopladigital.com/support> (click Supported Devices) iTunes: Apple devices with macOS 10.8.5 and later installed and Windows computers with Windows 7 or later installed <http://www.apple.com/itunes/download/>

Google Play Store: <https://support.google.com/googleplay/answer/1727131?hl=en> find Full list of supported devices and download the PDF

Windows Store: devices with Windows 8 and Windows 10 installed

Vimeo: <https://vimeo.com/everywhere>