

Gus's Top 5 Albums for March 2019

1. Now That's What I Call Music 20th Anniversary Vol. 2

The twentieth anniversary celebration continues with a collection featuring such hits as Taylor Swift's Shake It Off; Justin Bieber's Sorry; Britney Spears's Toxic; and Imagine Dragons' Thunder.

2. Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers – The Best Of Everything

For the first time, there is an anthology that spans Tom Petty's entire career. From the first album to Mudcrutch 2, this collection features 38 tracks on two discs and includes two previously unreleased recordings.

3. Hozier – Wasteland, Baby!

Hozier, the Grammy-nominated vocalist behind the hit song Take Me to Church, releases his sophomore album. Along with the single Almost, the album includes Mavis Staples on the track Nina Cried Power.

4. Rent – Soundtrack of the Fox Live Television Event

The four-time Tony Award-winning musical makes its way to the small screen in a special live performance featuring Tinashe, Vanessa Hudgens, and more. The two-disc soundtrack allows fans to relive this unique show.

5. George Strait – Honky Tonk Time Machine

The King of Country Music, George Strait is set to release his brand new studio album on March 29th. This will be his first album of all-new material in four years and has thirteen brand new tracks including the first single 'Every Little Honky Tonk Bar.' The album will feature one track with a duet with Willie Nelson, as well as the powerful song 'God and Country Music.'

That's it for this month. Catch me next month for more!
